

“The value of the AJMC Coalition is that it brings folks together from different perspectives and allows us to share our thinking and our creativity about finding ways to solve the healthcare problems that we’re facing. It’s an open dialogue, it’s protected, and there are opportunities for us to really get into the grassroots conversations about what problems exist, and how we might solve them together.”

Overview

AJMC's ACO and Emerging Healthcare Delivery Coalition is focused on leveraging best practices and key learnings to craft executable solutions. The Coalition will build off key insights from research as well as other collaborative initiatives (available in the public domain or shared directly) to enhance value for our members. The Coalition focuses on developing solutions beyond process and policy to encourage a diverse group of stakeholders to come together and innovate in this dynamic market.

Members include:

- ACO Providers and Leaders
- Payers
- IDNs
- GPOs
- Specialty and Retail Pharmacy
- National Quality Organizations
- PBMs
- Pharmaceutical Organizations
- Academia
- State Associations
- Patient Advocacy
- Health Policy Research

The event will offer unique perspectives from industry leaders as well as real world examples that address the vast array of issues relating to emerging delivery models, including such topics as data technology, cost/financial, quality, patient experience, transitions of care, care coordination, quality measures, outcomes, population management, and will provide numerous opportunities for collaboration.

Feedback from past attendees included:

"Diverse topics, well-informed, experienced speakers."

"Best content in 20 years in the healthcare industry."

"Strategically organized with relevant information."

"Great networking opportunity."

"Collaboration and open-minded panelists and attendees."
